

ACS Developmental Disabilities Unit

Lunch & Learn

The ACS Developmental Disabilities Unit would like to invite you to our upcoming virtual “Lunch & Learn” session, introduced by Angela Medina-Braddox, Executive Director of the ACS Developmental Disabilities Unit and facilitated by Cliff Datys, Resource Manager and the DD Unit team scheduled on August 18, 2022 from 12:00-1:00pm

Information will be provided in the areas of:

- Overview of the ACS Developmental Disabilities Unit
- Introduction of the Essential Parenting Supports Training Program
- A Presentation on Guardianship from Rivkin Radler

We encourage all our child welfare partners, foster care agencies, our internal ACS partners, preventive agencies, community stakeholders, Case Planners, Supervisors, Legal, Medical and Clinical staff within our partnering organizations to attend.

The “Lunch & Learn” training on 08/18/22 will include a presentation from Rivkin Radler focusing on:

*At the Crossroads of Emancipation & Guardianship
An Introduction to Guardianship*

Presented by Wendy H. Sheinberg, Partner

Please register via the Eventbrite link below:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/dd-unit-lunch-and-learn-workshop-tickets-387595387237>

When registered, you will be sent a separate email with a WebEx calendar invite to join the training. Please note this training is eligible for 1 CLE (Continuing Legal Education) credit in Professional Practice. The CLE credit is sponsored by Rivkin Radler.